

Decision-making power is connected to expertise rather than seniority

Organsational Politics

Only top management gets to decide what we do

Organsational Politics

Knowledge sharing is a common practice in our organisation

Organsational Politics

Power is distributed to personal favourites

Organsational Politics

Power is only exercised through the organisational structure

Organsational Politics

People follow others based on respect and reputation

Organsational Politics

People follow others based on fears

Organsational Politics

{ customised }

Organsational Politics